

Harghita-Băi – Hargitafürdő (1317m) (Tour of Szeklerland)

Harghita-Băi (in Romanian) or Hargitafürdő (in Hungarian) is a medium altitude resort, located in a Romanian Hungarian-speaking region, not far from the Oriental Carpatians. This region is called : Székelyföld in Hungarian, Ţinutul Secuiesc in Romanian, Székely Land or Szeklerland in English.

It is frequently visited by the local Cycling Tour of Szeklerland, that celebrates its 10th edition in 2016. In 2015, the ITT brought the cyclists from the intermediate pass (Pasul Vlăhița or Tolvajos-tető, 985m) to the ski resort.

Portrait

The climb has two sides (SE and SW) on the same road (13A) linking Miercurea Ciuc (SE) to Vlăhiţa (SW). From the pass at 985m, the end of the climb is common and is 5,7km long.

Before the pass, the climb is 3,3km at 3% (985-872m) on the SW side; on the SE side, same average gradient, but the climb is much longer (328m en 11,4km).
